

Complimentary Ticket Policy

Purpose

The High Notes Gala continues to be the major fundraising event which the ASD Foundation holds every year. As a fundraiser, its ticket price is established, with the goal of raising revenue to support the operations of the Foundation and district related programming.

Policy

- Complimentary tickets may be available by invitation from the sponsors of tables.
- At cost tickets (with no qualifying tax deduction) at the discretion of the ASDF executive director are available to ASD and ASDF personnel who volunteer their time working for the gala.
- All other attendees shall pay the full ticket price for the gala dinner and show, including ASD and ASDF board personnel, their families and guests, ASD faculty and non-sponsor guests.
- There may be circumstances that qualify an individual for a complimentary ticket at the discretion of the ASDF Executive Director.
- The "comp list" may be reviewed by the President and/or members of the Exec Committee.
- There may be other events in addition to the High Notes Gala where this policy may apply.
